Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 6th March 1954

S.R.O. 81.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the collection, recovery and refund of the conservancy tax and the water tax in the Dehra Dun Cantonment, framed by the Cantonment Board, Dehra Dun, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), and in supersession of the notifications of the United Provinces Government, No. 2411/XI-19C, dated the 20th October, 1927 and No. 2551/XI-19C, dated 3rd September, 1931, are published for general information, the same having been previously published, and approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for the regulation of collection, recovery and refund of conservancy Tax and Water Tax

1. For the purpose of calculating the correct amount of tax leviable on a person, the assessed annual value of the building or in the event of his being in occupation of more than one building or the annual value of the building having been assessed in parts, the assessed annual value of the building or of all the parts as the case may be, shall be taken into account.

2. The Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared at the beginning of each year a separate Demand and Collection register for each of the tax in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered, and shall cause such registers to be corrected from time to time as may be required.

3. The Demand and Collection Registers shall be in the forms detailed below:—
(i) Form as per Annexure "A" to these bye-laws for Conservancy tax.
(ii) Form as per Annexure "B" to these bye-laws for Water tax.

4. The entries in the Demand and Collection Registers shall be checked by the Executive Officer or such member or officer as the Cantonment Board may appoint in this behalf, who shall place his initials against each item of demand. If any alteration is made in the demand, the information or order in accordance with which it has been made shall be noted in the remarks column.

5. The owners of all properties in the Cantonment must inform the Cantonment Board Office of the names of occupiers of their properties, together with the dates of occupation and vacation to enable the taxes being recovered from the occupants in cases where they are liable to pay such taxes. Failing compliance, the owners shall be responsible to pay these taxes to the Cantonment Board.

6. The Cantonment Board shall cause a bill(s) to be served upon every assessee of the tax at least one week before the date on which the tax falls due. The bill shall be considered to have been duly served if it is delivered to the assessee, left at his or her house or posted on the door of the house in which he ordinarily resides.

7. The Conservancy and water taxes shall be payable half yearly in advance on 31st May and 30th November each year. The taxes shall be paid to the Executive Officer at the Cantonment Board Office or to the Tax Collectors appointed for this purpose. The Tax Collectors shall grant receipts under their signature in form "C" prescribed in these bye-laws. The Cantonment Board shall not be responsible for any amount paid for which a receipt in the prescribed form has not been obtained.

8. The Executive Officer shall be the authority competent to allow refund of the taxes on receipt of an application in this behalf. An application for refund shall allow at least 72 hours notice to the Executive Officer.

9. Both for the payment of the taxes and for their refund a period of less than 7 days shall be ignored, a period of 7 days but less than 15 days shall be reckoned as half a month and a period of 15 days and over shall be counted as a full month.

10. The Cantonment Board shall appoint one or more Inspectors whose duty it shall be to see that every house or building which is liable to the tax has been assessed and to report to that authority all cases in which assessment should be made or revised. These Inspectors may be specially appointed for this purpose or the duties of the office may be entrusted to any officer already otherwise employed under the Cantonment Board.

11. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
